

On Saint Vincent and the Grenadines Government Service

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Commerce
DR CHRISTOPHER GARRY STANGE
CONSUL GENERAL
Northern Ireland

Dr Christopher Stange became a member of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines' Foreign Service in December 2016.

He was appointed Consul General in Northern Ireland (November 2017) and assumed his duties (May 2018).

Christopher Stange has read at Mount Royal University in Calgary, Canada; Western States University in Portland Oregon, USA and the International College of Spinology in Sydney, Australia, receiving degrees in Arts and Science (Economics), Baccalaureate of Science (Human Biology), Doctor of Chiropractic (Honours) and an Advanced Diploma in Neurospinology.

Dr Stange is a leading figure in the Caribbean community within Northern Ireland with a keen interest in the social, cultural and economic development of small island developing states.

Achievements to date include investment, procurement and donation of supplies, equipment and consumables for St. Vincent and the Grenadines; Northern Ireland becoming a Fairtrade devolved region (country); sports diplomacy development of baseball and construction of Northern Ireland's first baseball diamond by Lisburn & Castlereagh City Council for inclusion in the Baseball Ireland league; founding the Consular Corps/Association of Northern Ireland (CA-NI), which he serves as Honorary Secretariat; and involvement with the registered charity: African & Caribbean Support Organisation Northern Ireland (ACSONI).

His hobbies and interests are reading, politics, diplomacy and world history; travel and expanding knowledge of culture, arts, food and customs; cooking, wine, music, opera and entertaining; fitness (baseball/softball, athletics, badminton).